a The question uses emotive or leading language by including the Prime Minister's beliefs.

b The question asks more than one question and makes a false assumption that a person has one of the accounts.

c The question makes a false assumption that the person has a sibling and that the sibling can drive.

d The question uses emotive or leading language as it suggests social media is time wasting.

e The question makes a false assumption that a person uses shoe polish.

a Country

b No, because the question uses emotive or leading language and suggests that Country music is cool. It also asks two questions rather than one, as it's possible to like both types of music.
